RG104 E-1 Box 133

D.N.

Office of Public Printer,

Washington, D. C., Dec. 15, 1884

A. London Snowden, Esq.,
Superintendent, Mint of the U.S.
Philadelphia, Penna.

Sir:

Your favor of the 12th. instant replying to my telegram of the day previous, in relation to the proceeds of the last package of material sent to you to be smelted, is at hand.

The package was sent to me from the Bindery in the usual way and I supposed it contained waste gold leaf, but I am informed by the Acting Foreman that it was made up of rubbers, rags, &c., & not gold sweepings.

I am, therefore, satisfied that the proceeds received are correct.

Thanking you for the courtesy shown,
I am very respectfully,

Cade Taylor
Chief Clerk.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 133

D.N.

Office of Public Printer,
Washington, D.C.,
December 15, 1884

A. Loudon Snowden, Esq.
Superintendent, Mint of the U.S.
Philadelphia, Penna.

Sir:

Your favor of the 12th instant replying to my telegram of the day previous, in relation to the proceeds of the last package of material sent to you to be smelted, is at hand.

The package was sent to me from the Bindery in the usual way and I supposed it contained waste gold leaf, but I am informed by the Acting Foreman that it was made up of rubbers, rags, &c., and not gold sweepings.

I am, therefore, satisfied that the proceeds received are correct.

Thanking you for the courtesy shown.

I am very respectfully,
Cades Taylor
Chief Clerk.